Agenda item 3

BASIC PROGRAMME OF WORK OF THE COUNCIL

Draft decision submitted by the Acting President on the basis of informal consultations

The economic, social and environmental consequences of the situation between Iraq and Kuwait and its short-, medium- and long-term implications

The Economic and Social Council decides to hold an informal exchange of views on the economic, social and environmental consequences of the situation between Iraq and Kuwait and its short-, medium- and long-term implications. The informal exchange of views will be held at the second regular session of 1991 of the Economic and Social Council. The Council further decides to request the Secretary-General, in consultation with the United Nations specialized agencies and organizations concerned, to provide appropriate documentation for the discussion. It invites the Executive Heads of the relevant specialized agencies and organizations of the United Nations system to participate in the discussion.
